C L A S S H I S T O R Y

What a beautiful day for strolling along the Beach of Life! Although we have done this so many times before, we still have a tendency to glance out upon the vast Ocean of Memories. But there's something different about it today. As we look more closely we notice the difference—there are four of the many waves of memories distinctly larger than all the others, and each of these larger in succession. Upon further examination we discover that these particular waves are filled with the memories of our four joy-filled high school years.

The smaller of the four waves, representing our freshman year, rolls rather timidly toward the shore, for this was the way in which we entered Cannon High School to become acquainted with the customs of the school where we would spend three and one-half delightful years. As the wave draws nearer, we remember the ones we chose to lead us that year. Bill Bennett led us as president; Linny Baker, vice-president; Marthelaine Williams, secretary; Hilda Maulden, treasurer. To represent our class in Council, we chose Jane Shelton and Benny Hargett. These officers and our class adviser, Miss Lois Smith, led us through a very successful freshman year.

Another newcomer our freshman year was our principal, Mr. F. O. Drummond. But he, as we did, soon became well acquainted with Cannon High.

The main activity our first year was the Freshman Class Party, which was in the form of a square dance held in the school gymnasium. It was the height of conversation for ever-so-long afterwards.

As the first small wave breaks and splashes around our feet, we look out towards the second wave, which comes toward us more bravely than did the first, for this was the year in which we shed our titles of "Greenies" and became known as "Sophisticated Sophomores."

At a class meeting our second year, we chose as our officers: Linny Baker, president; vice-president, Buck Cooke; secretary, Carolyn Bost; and treasurer, Kenneth Argo. Janice Earle Dennis and Kenneth Argo represented our class in Council, and Linny Baker was chosen from our class as Student Government Treasurer. We were very proud to have an officer in the Student Government, for as freshmen we had not been eligible.

Our sophomore adviser, Miss Elizabeth Graham, aided us in planning our class party, which was held at Mirror's Lake. Swimming, playing golf, and especially eating were enjoyed by everyone.

Four of our classmates, Linny Baker, Jean Kay Davvault, Charles Efird, and Janice Earle Dennis, were tapped into the National Honor Society that year. We were indeed proud of them, for very few sophomores get into that organization.

Then, as we stand lost in remembrances, the third large wave rolls in and breaks at our feet, bearing on its crest those wondrous recollections of our junior year.

That year Jane Shelton and Buck Cooke represented us in Council. Once again we chose Linny Baker president. In fact, our slate of officers was the same as it had been our sophomore year except for a few changes of office. Kenneth Argo became our vice-president; Carolyn Bost, our secretary, and Buck Cooke, our treasurer. Miss Marjorie Harrell became our junior adviser.

Then came our first class play. How thrilled we were that it was our class who could now have the joy of four weeks of practicing, putting on grease paint, and painting scenery. Our play was "Baby's Night Out," directed by Miss Adeline Rogers.

In December of that year, the seniors honored us with a beautiful Senior-Junior Prom, using the theme "Winter Wonderland." Large snow men, lamp posts, and snow laden trees carried out the scene picturesquely.

OUR PRAYER

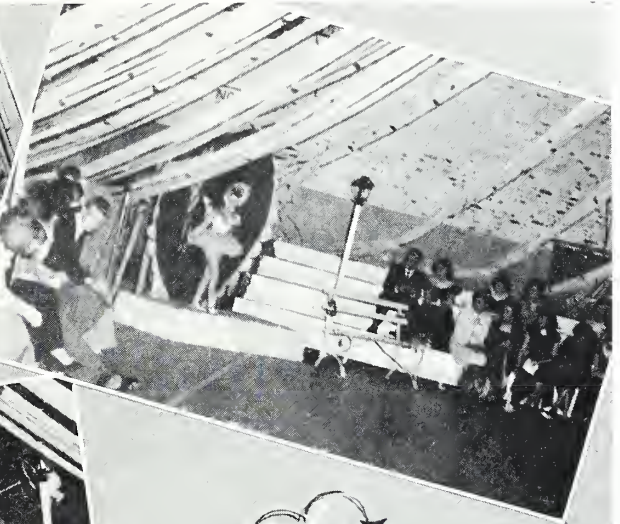

With weeping hearts and downcast eyes
We greet our friends with last goodbyes.
This night which seemed so far away
Has come at last, and now we pray
That God will guide us on our way
And help us in His path to stay.

We look around at friends so dear.
Can you believe that now we care
That each shall go his separate way
And what befalls us none may say?
For all we know we may be crowned
With glories beyond a mortal's ground
Or some may fall along the way
And ne'er again will wish to pray.

With cap and gown, oh Lord, guide me
To graduate for all to see
That I have faced and passed the test
Of wearing my gown and doing my best.

CLASS PROPHECY

While browsing around an old gift shop the other day, I came upon a beautiful old mirror. It was covered with dust, so I am sure it must have been there many, many years. The frame was done in a beautiful and intricate design, so I bought the mirror and took it home. Upon cleaning the glass, I discovered something very miraculous. I could look into the mirror and see things which were to happen many years hence. As I kept shining it, I saw some of my classmates from A. L. Brown High School in their chosen professions.

Some of the first to come into view were John Rufty, Glain Pennell, and Richard Reynolds, who were serving as ministers in various churches in North Carolina. Also in the religious field were Joan Thomas, Betty June Compton, and Evelyn Taylor.

This was very interesting, so I looked more closely as more scenes from the future unfolded. I saw a very impressive building which turned out to be a memorial hospital in New York, with Marthelaine Williams, M.D., as director. Employed at this famous hospital were Janet Edwards, Linny Baker (one of the foremost dentists in America), Joe Thomas, Betty Ann Phillips, Thelma Sloop, and Doris Sloop. Just across the street, stood a modern glass drugstore owned by Donald Punch, pharmacist, and his staff of "soda-jerks." Some of these included Mickey Caudle, Paul Barbee, and Don Hogue. The store had a special beauty salon, managed by Norma Hardy (famous beautician), Barbara Sills, Patsy White, and Nancy Viola.

As the pictures continued to come into view, I saw many K.H.S. girls making very comfortable livings as models. Carolyn Bost was top model for an agency co-owned by Bobby Walker and Bill Bennett. Also pulling down thousands in this field were Dot Childers, Evelyn Honeycutt, Peggy Austin, and Carolyn Morris.

Some of my classmates did not seem to like the ground for I found many up in the wild blue yonder. Jane Shelton, Betty Ann Helms, Phyllis Moss, Geraldine Woodell, and Peggy Beaver were airline hostesses. Jimmy Howell, Jimmy Ledbetter and Gene Lankford found the life of a pilot very exciting, while Bobby Quay did not like to be up in the air. He was interested in planes, and being the millionaire he was, he owned the three major airlines in the United States.

Caleb Glass was owner of the largest record store in the world, recording and selling thousands of records made by Peggy Freeze and Loretta Marshall on vocals. Jean Kay Dayvault was making a hit with her piano recordings, while the combination of Johnny Bowers, Donald Anderson, Troy Doby, Don Roberson and Dolly Cruse was taking over the place in discs once occupied by the "Four Hits and a Miss."

Though the war was long since over, many guvs of the class of '52 were serving in the armed forces. Ralph Strube, Furman Dillard, Max McKinney, and Morris Helms, along with some of the supposedly weaker sex. Janice Honeycutt, Bonnie Shepherd, Betty Talbert, and Peggy Hudson were among these.

The pictures were getting a little dim, so I began cleaning again. As I rubbed harder, the movie world came into view and I saw Joann Watson, Emily Caraway, Phyllis Metcalf, Joe Lambert, Frank Chisolm, Jerry Russell as some of the most famous film stars. Troy Payne was the owner of a chain of vaudeville theatres which featured such acts as the dancing combination of Joyce Falls, Betty Ruth Helms, Phyllis Whitley, and Jeroline Watts. Also starred was a tap dance routine by Harold Hudspeth and Eugene Benton.

In the business world, some of the graduates of K.H.S. were proving themselves very capable. Millicent Rosenberg was one of the top commercial artists, and her staff was composed of Violet Jean Raye, Nadine Clement, and Joyce Peterson. Sign painters employed by "Millie, Inc.," were Lewis Morrow, Boyd Vanderburg, Charles Wellman, and Donald Black.

Owning the largest grocery stores in the world I saw R. B. and C. W. Barnhardt. A few of the clerks working for the Barnhardts were Eugene Benfield, Donald Upright, Allen Leonard, Kyle Hooks, and Hunter Hay.

Since women cab drivers have come into existence, I was not surprised to find Theresa Dwyer, Nancy Matthews, Shirley Phillips, and Carleen Rogers employed in this work.

As I continued to gaze into this marvelous mirror, some of the outstanding characters in the literary world caught my eye. A best seller by Jerry Armstrong entitled "The Story of My Life" was being considered for a special journalistic award. Other great writers were Wallace Watkins, Creston Erwin, Lewis Vernon, Phyllis Jean Smith, Gladys Davis, and Nancy Barger.

Television, now being as common in the American home as the electric light, was being invaded by such performers as Howard Holloway, Mason Parks, Dan Castor, and Bobby Rogers on the "We'll Answer Anything" quiz program. Quiz master for this program is Buford Howard.

More rubbing upon the glass revealed Vivian Honeycutt as the owner of a large chain of teen-age clothing stores. Designing the exclusive frocks for her were Etta Sue Boggs, Beverly Cobb, Betty Black, and Bobbie Jean Clayton.

Of course I knew many of the gals in my class would get married and raise cute lil' younguns! Shirley Maness, Betty Lane Fleming, Marianne Sherrill, and Elsie Mae Cox were a few of these little housewives.

Hilda Maulden had opened a studio teaching baton twirling and strutting. In the same building with the studio, Charles Efrid had established a gym for muscle building and training prize fighters. Some of the greats in the boxing world he had trained were Alton Wellman and Charles Ketner. Wrestling attracts many of the stronger sex, and I saw Swann King, Bill Funderburk, and Wayne Biles taking some of the big prize money for winning wrestling matches in Madison Square Garden.

Teaching at some of the finer colleges in the United States were some of my classmates who had excelled in the various subjects. Ollena Price, teaching Bible; Martha Matthews, trig; Ruth Eanes, commercial courses; Kathryn Bailes, Latin; Hugh Parham, teaching Biology, and Gail Bost teaching two courses in English. Ken Argo was also on the teaching staff at one of the largest colleges. He was coaching a football team through its third unbeatable season.

Some of the hill-billy enthusiasts of the class of '52 I saw broadcasting on their own programs on one of the central net works on radio. Included in this were Buzzy "Country Boy" Yarbrough, Comas Smith, John Sechler, Sherrill Austin, Ray Dixon, and Arnold Moss.

Though it seemed to me that everything possible had been invented, I saw Buddy Shinn, Everette Sloop and Kenneth Stokes trying to modernize this old world of ours with a complete push-button home. Assisting these great scientists were Martha White, Juanita Simpson, and Julia Ann Price.

CLASS PROPHECY

The nose for news attracted some of the better journalists of my class, and I saw Janice Munday, Betty Ann Phillips, Doris Goble, and Geraldine Holshouser reporting for various top newspapers in the country. Co-editors for one of the largest were Kenneth Huffman and Franklin Sloop.

As I continued to gaze into my mirror, I saw a dramatic play in action with Bobby Russell directing. Multi-millionaire Earl Lentz was financing the production, and starring in it was Kay Savage. In supporting roles were Valerie Lawing, Ethel Patton, Margaret Peterson, Jimmy Belk, Marvin Leonard, and Ray Petrea.

The scene suddenly shifted, and for a moment I thought the pictures were over. Then I saw the beautiful rolling farmland of Virginia. Robert Taylor owned a completely modernized farm, and J. D. and Ralph Cauble owned "Cauble's Dairy," one of the best known in Virginia.

Also in this section of the country I saw J. L. Gibson and John Troutman who own a large stable of racing horses. Two of their jockeys, Buise Steen and Jerry Tilley, had won the Kentucky Derby.

I saw that Benny Wright had his own ambulance service, and was credited with saving many lives. He was connected with the memorial hospital I had already seen.

Still enthralled by this strange phenomenon, I saw that some young ladies were proving that this is a woman's world. Annie Armstrong owned a huge catering service which planned such parties as the wedding reception of New York socialite Mildred Allen.

Katrina Cartner and Norma Chambers were some of the most well-known interior decorators in the business. They remodeled the offices of Paul Tuggle, oil magnate, and the home of Billy McWhorter, manufacturer of nylon hose.

Some of the hot-rod drivers I saw in the future were Gene Eddleman, Reese Bradley, and Frankie Combs.

I then saw a view of Carolina Beach, with some of my former classmates working there. Nancy Lentz and Janice Earle Dennis owned a fashionable group of tourist cottages. Buck Cooke and Kenneth Childers owned a fine hot-dog stand. John Hardister had a costume jewelry shop.

Leaving the beach, the picture changed to Paris, where I saw Theresa Enslev, Ruth Adams, Geraldine Combs, and Melvena Bonds designing clothes for fashion-wise women all over the world.

In the society world, some of the well-known debutantes of the day were Janet Buckwell, Janice Munday, Phyllis Barringer, Joyce McCollum, and Ruby Edwards.

Owning a girls' school for the elite young ladies, I found Sylvia Dabbs and Carolyn Boles.

Many eligible bachelors from A. L. Brown High School still seemed to find this life exciting. Bill Robinette, Gary Deal, Harlen Phillips, and Bobby Mullis were succeeding in eluding the marriage-minded females.

In the music world, Don Compton was making a debut in opera, and Hazel O'Kelley had the feminine role opposite him.

A large hot-house specializing in rare black orchids was co-owned by Mazie Cleary and Doris Middleton. Each flower section was directed by such famous flower experts as Vivian Lowder, Geraldine Tarlton, Leah Rae Barker, and Valoree Shinn. Their main business came from Charles McWhorter who operated a fashionable florist shop in New York City.

Under the big-top, some of the most famous circus performers of all time were making their living in Harold Thompson's Three Ring Circus. Daphne Daniels, Joyce Dendy, Phyllis Rhyne, Betty Sue Presson and Maxine Hartsell were billed as top bareback riders. Carolyn Teal and Peggy McDowell teamed up in the lion taming business. Floyd Fritz was watering elephants. Barbara Martin and Betty Carpenter had taught camels to do educational tricks, and Margaret Randolph specialized in a high dive into a tub of water.

Leading a safari into the wilds of Africa was fearless Hazel Dancy, Virginia Allen, Ina Ruth Dennis, and Eleana Roberts. They were bringing back animals for Mildred Rollings and Eleanor Foil to mount in their taxidermist shop. Financing the expedition was Shirley Ervin, who had inherited five million dollars.

Loraine Strawn recently had a book of poems published by the Jarrett Publishing Company owned by June Jarrett. Some of the personnel employed by this company were Willie Sutton, Virginia Waggoner, Betty Honeycutt, and Geraldine Holshouser.

I saw that Blondie Holbrooks had taken over the radio shop which had been in her family for generations. A boom to this business was the ingenious inventions of Doris Chandler, Peggy Beaver, and Jacqueline Caudle.

The professional library in New York was managed by Alice Allman with the able assistance of Clatie McLean, Thelma Deal, Eva Mae Williams, and Helen Rushing. Two great novels written by Carol Jean Suther and Ruth Roseman were donated to this institution.

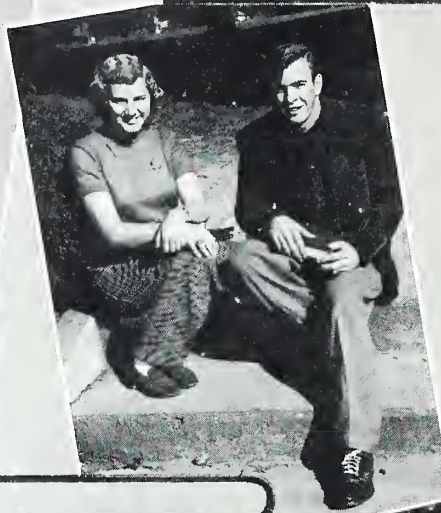

A women's chorus which was touring the world came into view in the mirror at this time, and I saw that its director was Eleanor Gullledge. A few of the best sopranos were Lorene Helms, Iris Jean Dudley, and Hilda Ruff. Some alto voices included Gloria Howard and Mattie Lou Stancil.

Grady Price was the owner of the First National Bank in Chicago. This bank employed Irene Roberts and Edna Stancil as tellers.

Then all at once the picture faded and I came back to reality. This was really fine, but I had a job to do, and the editor was waiting for my feature article on fashion.

That was also the year that everyone attended the laying of the cornerstone for the new A. L. Brown High School, which was at last becoming a reality.

The long awaited trip to Washington, D. C., by the United States history classes also became an unbelievable reality. We saw many historical buildings and stopped at the enchanting Luray Caverns on the return trip. This tour proved educational and enjoyable to everyone who went.

In May we, the juniors, honored the seniors with a momentous Junior-Senior Banquet at the Y.M.C.A. followed by a prom at the school gym. The theme "Hitch Your Wagon to a Star" was carried out with miniature wagons hitched to glittering stars. Appropriate songs for the occasion were sung by little Miss Dannie Brigrman.

Linny Baker was secretary of the Student Government that year.

This was also the year in which we won the plaque from Curtis Circulation Company for outstanding accomplishments in selling magazines. Our total sales amounted to $1,797.54.

Climaxing the year was the receiving of our class rings in May. These we proudly polished and showed off for the remainder of the year. They were different that year, because of the fact that we would be the first class to graduate from A. L. Brown High School.

The last and larger wave starts toward us in an unruly, happy-go-lucky manner. It hardly seemed true that we were now, at last, "Dignified Seniors."

We began the year by electing our class officers. We chose Kenneth Argo to be president; vice-president, Benny Wright; secretary, Ruth Eanes; and treasurer, Bill Bennett. To serve in Council were Carolyn Bost and Charles Efird. Phyllis Thompson became prophet and Earl Lentz, our lawyer.

At the first of the year, there was the awful grind of senior pictures, club pictures, and many things which had to be done to go into the Senior Edition of the CANNON REPORT. Everyone considered it worth all the trouble, though, when we received our treasured books.

Then came the two most outstanding and enjoyable events, the Senior-Junior, and the Junior-Senior. Each was a success, and Millicent Rosenberg, social chairman, Mr. R. D. Boone, Miss Nella Harris, and Mrs. Virginia Alexander did a wonderful job in making plans for the Senior-Junior event.

There was the excitement of ordering calling cards, invitations, caps and gowns, and diplomas. We could hardly wait for Senior Day so that we could enjoy an outing at one of the nearby lakes.

Senior adviser, Miss Loraine Gray, and the many helpful committees aided us in choosing our colors, lavender and silver; our flower, the orchid; class poem; motto, "The will to do, the soul to dare"; class song, and mascots, Dana Leebrick and Cynthia Johnson. We dedicated our Yearbook to Miss Rebecca Slate, who had so freely devoted her services to us.

Linny Baker became president of our Student Government our last year in high school and Buck Cooke was vice-president.

The title of "Miss Hi Miss," chosen on the basis of beauty, scholarship, and character, was awarded to Dot Childers, while Carolyn Bost was awarded that of "Miss Cannon High."

Then the wave rushes toward us with a mighty surge as we remember the breath-taking entering of our new school, A. L. Brown High School. This was a wonderful occasion to which everyone had looked with great anticipation. The school was wonderful! It was as much and more than we had expected. We, the Senior Class, having been the first to graduate from A. L. Brown High School, hope that all classes following us will have enjoyed it as much as we did.

Then, as though the entire Ocean of Memories were pushing it, the mighty wave roars in, splashing its spray upon our faces, and bringing with it the ending of all our high school years—graduation. It was a grand, happy, and sad occasion, all wrapped into one. We walked proudly across the new stage of the A. L. Brown High School and marched into our many varied and scattered ways of life, never to relive that night again.

But we'll never forget our Alma Mater, A. L. Brown High School, and what it meant to us, and always there'll be a tender place in our hearts for what Cannon High meant to us, too.

As we turn to walk on down the Beach of Life, we notice that the outgoing tide is carrying our four precious waves back out into the Ocean of Memories so that we may return to this spot again to relive those four wonderful years.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

ARTICLE I

We, the Seniors of Brown High School, in perfect health and memory (praise be), do make and ordain this our last will and testament.

ARTICLE II

We commend our ambitious selves into the hands of life, our ultimate destiny, knowing that the knowledge and education received by us will bring us happiness and fame everlasting in the outer world into which we are about to embark.

ARTICLE III

We bequeath to our principal, Mr. Fred O. Drummond, all the love, respect, admiration, awe, and deference, in which we hold him that he may distribute said love, respect, admiration, awe, and deference impartially among the underclassmen in order that they may conduct themselves in a respectful manner as we have always endeavored to conduct ourselves.

ARTICLE IV

To the teachers we leave our deepest appreciation for their untiring efforts in an attempt to educate us, and solve our problems; in which respect they have done a very commendable job. Thanks!

ARTICLE V

To the rising Freshmen, Sophomores, Juniors, and especially Seniors, we leave with you, our last request: keep the school going and maintain the spirit on which our school has thrived for such a long time.

ARTICLE VI

I, Ruth Adams, being of sound body and empty head, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to draw to Phillip Dellinger. To Martha Pittman, I will my ability to get up front in the cafeteria line.

I, Mildred Allen, do hereby will and bequeath my thanks and appreciation to Miss Harris for her patience, and my typewriter to Faye Goodman, hoping that she will be able to type on it without it being fixed.

I, Virginia Allen, do hereby will and bequeath to Franklin Rary, a rising sophomore, my ability to get through high school in four years and to Harold Allen, I leave my ability to get along with girls, knowing he loves them.

I, Alice Allman, will and bequeath my job as assistant to Mr. Coffey to anyone who is lucky enough to get it and all my good times to Irene Ruff and Wallace Ritchie.

I, Donald Anderson, being of sane mind(?) and shiftless legs do hereby will and bequeath my ability to get out of school in four years to my brother, Richard, who is a rising junior.

I, Kenneth Argo, do hereby will and bequeath my position on the football team to my cousin Don, and my ability to punt to Clark Drake. My cherished seat in English IV, I leave to my unfortunate sister, Danny.

I, Annie Armstrong, being of sound(?) mind, do hereby will and bequeath to Miss Harrell quiet art classes third and fifth periods.

I, Jerry Armstrong, do hereby will and bequeath my stool in Mr. Van Poole's physics class to any red-blooded American boy who has the courage to sit on it.

I, Peggy Austin, do hereby will and bequeath my good times at K.H.S. to "Dougie" Logan and Georgann Alexander; and to Janice Brinkley, I leave my wonderful times at Student Government dances the past two years.

I, Sherrill Austin, do hereby will and bequeath my place in the Senior Class to any Junior that will accept it and uphold its tradition.

I, Kathryn Bailes, do hereby will and bequeath my two years of romping as an office page to my sister, Grace, a rising sophomore, hoping that she has rubber feet for the job.

I, Earl (Baxter) Lentz, do hereby will and bequeath, with benevolence in my heart, all my good times in school, on the basketball team, on the baseball team, and in mixed chorus to Ronald Blackburn.

I, Nancy Lentz, leave to Phyllis Canup and Anne Carter a ride to town at lunch time to anyone who is brave enough to take them. To my brother, George Ray, I leave my ability to graduate in four years with the class of '62.

I, Allen Lewis Leonard, being of no mind and part of a body, do hereby will and bequeath all my good times and the ability to flirt with the girls at K.H.S. to Jackie Spry, who can uphold these better than anyone I know.

I, Marvin Leonard, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to graduate in four years to my brother Eddie and all my good times, to Don Argo.

I, Ralph Lewis, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to pass all subjects and to graduate in four years to Earl Dean Lewis and Charles Ray Smith.

I, Vivian Lowder, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to graduate to my brother, Robert, a rising sophomore, and to Mattie Jean Phillips, I leave all my good times at K.H.S. To Anna Pennell, I leave my seat in seventh period study hall.

I, Shirley Maness, do hereby will and bequeath all my happy days in high school to my sister, Jo Ann. For my teachers, I leave!

I, Loretta Marshall, do hereby will and bequeath my seat in English IV to Janice Brinkley, who is so eagerly awaiting it, and to Barbara Keever and Georgann Alexander, I will all my good times at Cannon High.

I, Barbara Martin, do hereby will and bequeath my love for my teachers, who have been very nice to me, to my sister, Mary, a rising freshman. To all the underclassmen, I leave my respects to the best of schools, Cannon High.

I, Martha Matthews, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to graduate at "16" to Phyllis Bentley and my "longing to grow" to June Gurley. My monitor post I will to Faye Lipe, hoping she's good at knocking people off fire escapes.

I, Nancey Matthews, leave to Phyllis Finger a horse named "Silver" since she will be the "Lone Ranger" of the Six of Clubs.

I, Hilda Mauldin, will my position as majorette, for four freezing years, to anyone with Eskimo blood; my burps and "hilts," I leave to the band sponsors and majorettes and my ability to make the junior class play to Sidney and Janice Solomon.

I, Peggy McDowell, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to carry my big feet from room 309 to the D.O. building in four minutes to any poor soul who was born with big feet, and my big mouth to my bashful brother, Henry, a rising senior.

I, Clatie McLean, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to graduate from high school without having detention hall to my brother, a rising freshman.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

I, Charles McWhorter, do hereby will and bequeath my seat in Bible II to Steve Falls—I hope he enjoys it.

I, Phyllis Metcalf, do hereby will and bequeath my good times in school to Terry, my brother, and my crazy laugh and sense of humor, I just leave.

I, Doris Middleton, do hereby will and bequeath anything that I don't take with me to Patsy Powell, a rising senior.

I, Lewis Morrow, being of sound(?) body and weak mind, do hereby will my seat in Governor Boone's Senate to any lucky "elected" Senator.

I, Arnold (Sonny) Moss, being of sane mind(?) and sound body, do hereby will and bequeath my good times at K.H.S. to Steve Mitchell and Jerry Cavin, and my ability to finish high school in four years to my cousin, Jerry Connelly.

I, Phyllis Moss, being of feeble mind and a weak body, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to get through four years of English with the hardest teachers to Shirley Chandler. I hope you make it, Shirley.

I, Bobby Mullis, do hereby will and bequeath my golden luck of not having detention hall for my very happily spent four years inside these walls, to my cousin, Parks Mullis. To all the students I will my ability to have Mrs. Martin as my teacher for at least one year.

I, Marie Mullis, being of sound mind and shiftless body, do hereby will and bequeath my good times at Cannon High to Shirley Walker, as well as my ability to finish high school in three years.

I, Janice Munday, do hereby will and bequeath my seat down front in chapel to Clifford Lovin, sore neck included. To Joyce Crider, I leave my non-paying job of giving out the library cards in study hall. My shorthand book I gladly leave to anyone who thinks that he can make words out of little crooked marks.

I, Mary Lou Owings, do hereby will and bequeath all of my good times at K.H.S. to the rest of the "gang" that are still in school; and to June Miller, I will my ability to finish school in three years.

I, Hazel O'Kelley, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to graduate from high school in three years to Jackie Wyke, a rising freshman, and my good times at Cannon High to Helen Little and Mary Lee Russell.

I, Mason Parks, will and bequeath to my brother, "Mick," all my good times in Cannon High.

I, Ethel Patton, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to finish school to my little girl, Joan Marie, who should finish in 1966.

I, Troy Payne, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to pass on C's and D's to Richard Christy.

I, Glain Pennell, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will and bequeath my parking place under the tree to Joe Crowell and Nelson Hollar.

I, Joyce Peterson, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to graduate in four years to my cousins, and my chewing gum to Earl Steelman.

I, Margaret Peterson, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to finish school to Douglas Pittman, who should graduate in 1968. To Phyllis Upright, I leave my seat in Mr. Boone's first period government class.

I, Ray Petrea, being of sound mind, do hereby will and bequeath all my good times at Cannon High to Vivian Pope, Claudette Ward, and Gladys Goforth. I also will my ability to get along with Mrs. Alexander to all those taking plane geometry next year.

I, Betty Ann Phillips, do hereby will and bequeath to my sister Patsy, my seat in assembly, and to Shelby Dupree, my good times in Cannon High.

I, Harlen Phillips, do hereby will and bequeath to the rising senior class, my good times and my happily spent five years inside these walls.

I, Shirley Phillips, do hereby will and bequeath to my sister, Dolores, a rising freshman, all my good times, and to my dear cousin, Carol, I leave my ability to drive a car to school, knowing she'll never get her "Dad's" out of the garage.

I, Betty Sue Presson, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to read shorthand to Carolyn and Evelyn, knowing how hard they try. The rest, I just leave.

I, Julia Ann Price, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to get through high school without detention hall to my brother, Luther, and my good times to Donice, Lutecia, and Shirley.

I, Ollena Price, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will and bequeath all my good times and teachers of K.H.S. to Haward Plyer, a rising junior. To Barbara Weaver, Norman Brumbeloe, and Shirley Perkins, I leave my ability to get along with the cop in front of school.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

I, Don Puntch, being of sound mind (sometimes), will and bequeath my position as cheerleader to Keith Lemly and Jerry Ridenhour, my good times at Cannon High to everyone, and my ability to burst tires to Jimmy Reavis.

I, Bobby Quay, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to graduate in four years, to Pete Athanaelos and my good times to my cousin, Elmo Hoffman.

I, Bobby Rogers, being of sound mind and body do hereby will and bequeath all my good times in Cannon High to Wayne Steele. My ability to get along with the teachers, I leave to Gene Thompson.

I, Charles Jerry Russell, do hereby will and bequeath my position, third from the end, on the football players bench to any poor sucker who will take it.

I, Violet Jean Raye, being of sound mind(?) do hereby will and bequeath the dignity I lost in Mr. Van Poole's algebra class to my two sisters, hoping they regain it. To anyone entering K.H.S., I leave my good times.

I, Phyllis Smith Rhyne, will my monitor post to Bruce Nussman with the hopes he doesn't bruise as easily as I.

I, Mildred Rollings, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to "work" in the evenings to my sister, "Dot," and to Barbara Smith, I will my ability to stay single until I finish because she will need it.

I, Millie Rosenberg, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to "blow bubbles" in Miss Gray's class and live to tell it to "S. M." Finger, and to "Kobler" Dowless, the definition he has long searched for.

I, Irene Roberts, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to tell "little white lies" and be true to all my "cousins," and still flirt with every service man I see, to anybody who is crazy enough to try either.

I, John Rufty, being in my right mind, do hereby will and bequeath my monitor post to Katie Ruth Durham, my good times to Jerry Daye, and my ability to get along with other people to my sister.

I, Richard Reynolds, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will and bequeath my seat in Governor Boone's Senate to any duly elected Senator. To Kevin Johnson, I will all my good times in Cannon High.

I, Margaret Randolph, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to all of the freshmen to sit over as much chewing gum as I have without being stuck.

I, Carleen Rogers, do hereby will and bequeath my love for hamburgers to "Louie" Richardson, Sherrill Thomas, and "Marge" Torrence. To "Doie" Eames I leave my good times, and to "Rat" Seamon, my ability to graduate.

I, Hilda Ruff, being of sound body and sane mind (?) do hereby will and bequeath my stupidity to my sister, Irene. To all underclassmen, my love for dear "Ole Cannon High."

I, Ruth Roseman, do hereby will and bequeath all of my ex-boy friends to my sister, Joan, since she seems to be having trouble getting one; to Iris Ward Harris, Pearl Earnhardt, and Myrtle Gullledge, I will anything from Cannon High that they might be crazy enough to want.

I, Helen Rushing, being of sound body and I hope sound mind, do hereby will and bequeath my southern accent and love for the South to Martha Poston. To Sandra Jones and Sylvia Cheek, I will the good times I had my last two and only years at Cannon High.

I, Elecia Roberts, do hereby will and bequeath my seat in business correspondence to Norma (Junie) Yates, knowing she will welcome the very thought of getting out of English.

I, Pat Safrut, being of whole body and remainders of a mind, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to win friends and influence morons to Patsy Caudle.

I, Kay Savage, do hereby will and bequeath my hilarious times at Cannon High to my sister, Nancy, a rising sophomore.

I, Jane Shelton, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to make up new meanings to old words (such as "Kooter") to Sidney Solomon, and to Phyllis Finger, I give the responsibility of keeping the "plus one" of the "Six of Clubs" alive in Brown High.

I, Bonnie Shepherd, do hereby will and bequeath all my good times with "Tennie," Louise, and the gang to Joan Whittington Hudson and Kay Turner.

I, Marianne Sherrill, do hereby will and bequeath my position in Quill and Scroll to Jimmy Reavis. To Charles "Sonny" Holman, I leave my good times at Cannon High, and to Frankie Black I leave the ability to struggle through two more years of school.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

I, Buddie Shinn, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to graduate in four years to Ralph Faulkenbury and to Richard Griffin, I leave my "love" for K.H.S.

I, Valoree Shinn, being sounder in spirit than in mind, do hereby will and bequeath my position as manager of the girls' basketball team to any girl who can listen, write, talk, laugh, and chew gum at the same time.

I, Juanita Simpson, do hereby will and bequeath my seat in chapel to Joyce Ingle; my good times at K.H.S. to Jerry White and Joan Campbell. To my sister, Evelyn, I will my ability to graduate.

I, Doris Sloop, do hereby will and bequeath my position on the basketball team to "Bets" Overcash. To Nancy Payne and Dale Aderhold, I leave my ability to get through high school without going to the detention hall.

I, Everette Sloop, do hereby will and bequeath all my good times in school and my home room, Mrs. Alexander's, to my brother, Don, and to Fred Hay; I hope they can make it through school as I did.

I, Franklin Sloop, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to go four years in high school without the detention hall to my brothers, Guy and Tommy, and I leave my senior seat to Bobby Coe.

I, Thelma Sloop, do hereby will and bequeath my problems in English and chemistry to my brothers, hoping they can solve them better than I.

I, Comas Smith, being with no mind and a broken down body, do hereby will and bequeath all my good times in Cannon High and my love to Shelvla Jean Hubbard.

I, Phyllis Smith (being out of my mind), do hereby will and bequeath my ability to learn to drive to Lily Pat McManus, knowing she is going to be a "Hot Rod." To Sue Huskey, I will my seat in the cafeteria, and to Jo Ann Black, I leave my good times.

I, Edna Stancil, do hereby will and bequeath my dear "ole" Latin seat and my ability to pass the subject to any student who takes Latin.

I, Mattie Lou Stancil, do hereby will and bequeath my dislike for chemistry to Mr. Ellis and my love for Mrs. Alexander to Evelyn Earnhardt.

I, Buise Steen, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will and bequeath my blond hair to anyone crazy enough to have it. I leave all my good times with the girls to anyone lucky enough to get them.

I, Kenneth Stokes, being of sound body and weak mind, leave all my good times at K.H.S. and my ability to graduate to Mac Dula, a rising junior.

I, Lorraine Strawn, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to graduate to Evelyn Simpson and Joyce Ingle, knowing that they will need it. To my cousin, Bill, I leave my good times at Cannon High.

I, Ralph Strube, do hereby will my ability to finish high school to anybody.

I, Carol Jean Suther, do hereby will and bequeath to Shelia Sasser the joy of being a senior, and I benevolently leave her all the bills, hoping she has a bigger bank account than I.

I, Willie Faye Sutton, do hereby will and bequeath all my good times at Cannon High School to Dot Steen, knowing that if possible she will have them.

I, Betty Talbert, hereby will and bequeath my good times at Cannon High School to Barbara Cook and to all the underclassmen I just leave.

I, Geraldine Tarlton, do hereby will and bequeath my favorite teacher, Miss Harrell, to my sister, Joyce, and all good times at K.H.S. to Jacqueline Davis, Linda Davis, and Doris Jean Rogers.

I, Evelyn Taylor, do hereby will and bequeath all my good times to my little brother, Alton, who is a rising junior.

I, Robert Taylor, do hereby will and bequeath my ability not to study and still pass, although it took fourteen years to graduate to anyone crazy enough to try it.

I, Carolyn Teal, do hereby will and bequeath my luck to graduate to my brother, Bobby; to Barbara Cook, I leave the ABC chewing gum in study hall and to Kenneth Price I just leave—hoping he doesn't have as tough a time.

I, Joan Thomas, do hereby will and bequeath to Evelyn Earnhart my ability of going through high school without getting detention hall, and to Lillie Coone, the first seat in Mrs. Alexander's home room.

I, Joe Thomas, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to graduate to Charles Steen, and to Phil Tesh, I leave my good times on band trips, and for the faculty, I'll just leave.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

I, Harold Thompson, do hereby will and bequeath my position in the horse-shoe to Jerry Daye and all my detention time to Don Argo.

I, Phyllis Thompson, do hereby will and bequeath to Joe Glass and Sonny Shelf my place in Quill and Scroll. To Joyce Nunn, I leave my love of "drums," hoping that she can get out of third period to listen to them as much as I did.

I, Jerry Tilley, do hereby will and bequeath my good ole back seat in Miss Gray's English class to Fred Harrington and Harold Plyler. To Ann Fesperman, I leave the good times that we had in seventh period study hall.

I, John Troutman, do hereby will and bequeath my good times at Cannon High to Martha Troutman and my position as football manager to Jerry Daye.

I, Paul Tuggle, being as sound in mind as in body, do hereby will and bequeath my luck to graduate to James Hill knowing that he needs it. To Gordon Campbell, who is a rising freshman, I leave all my senior privileges(?).

I, Donald Upright, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to finish high school in four years to anyone who wishes to try it and my desire to finish school, to my sister, a rising sophomore.

I, Lewis Vernon, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to drive to Jimmy Strickland.

I, Nancy Viola, do hereby will and bequeath to my brother, George, a rising junior, my childish ideas, hoping to take my dignity with me. I leave my love to Miss Ward and Mrs. Martin.

I, Virginia Waggoner, do hereby will and bequeath all my good times at Cannon High to Dot Rollins and Dale Aderholdt. To Nancy Payne, I leave my ability to finish school before getting married.

I, Bobby Walker, having no mind and very little body, do hereby will and bequeath my everything, which is nothing, to anyone, who is a nobody, to do with as they think proper since there is really nothing there to do with.

I, Wallace Charles Watkins, do hereby will and bequeath all my fun on the band trips to my brother, Dickie Watkins, and my ability to make the junior class play to my friend, Joe Dowless.

I, Jo Ann Watson, do hereby will and bequeath my love for Cannon High to Doris Steen, and to my brother, Bobby, who will graduate with the class of '58. I leave my ability to graduate in four years, knowing that he will need it.

I, Jeroline Watts, do hereby will and bequeath to Phyllis Finger my moody moods and all of my good times at Cannon High.

I, Brice Alton Wellman, do hereby leave my ability to finish school and not quit to Gail Hines. I also leave my ability to Don Argo to make good in football, and to Paul Fisher, my ability to have as much fun with the girls as I have.

I, Martha White, do will and bequeath my ability to graduate in four years to my brother, Harry, who will graduate in the year of 1961 and all of my good times to Carol Price, a rising junior.

I, Pasty White, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to finish high school in four years without missing a day to Glenda Stack, a rising sophomore. To Shirley Miller, also a rising sophomore, I leave my freckles.

I, Phyllis Ray Whitley, do hereby will and bequeath to "Farmer Gail Gilliam" my ability to leave the boys alone who go "Steady." To "Patsy" Whitley I leave my love for Concord and boys named "Ted," hoping that she will have as much fun as I had.

I, Eva Mae Williams, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to get to school in five minutes to Phyllis Hayes and June Medlin, seeing they are late often.

I, Benjamin Franklin Wright, do hereby leave my best wishes to the Senior Class of 1953, hoping they will prosper in the future.

I, Marthelaine Williams, being of sound mind and sounder body, do hereby will my nicknames, "Priss," "Wad," and "Chunkey," to everyone who has labeled me thusly, knowing how they will suffer; and my majorette position to Pat Coffey, class of '61, hoping she can survive the chill bumps and hilarious band trips.

I, Geraldine Woodell, do hereby will and bequeath to my cousin, Jo Ann Daniels, a rising freshman, my good times, and to "Phyl" Canup my imaginary car, knowing how well she hates to walk.

I, Buzzy Yarborough, do hereby will and bequeath my position on the football squad to Jerry Day, and to Bill "Chimp" Strawn and Joe "Huff" Hill, those unholy haircuts.
